

Strengthen your knowledge of acute ischemic stroke (AIS)

Explore online learning opportunities that can help you or your institution better identify, diagnose, and treat stroke. Each module offers a certificate of completion and is provided at no cost to end users.*

Instructions: Choose option 1 or 2 below, based on how you will be using HealthStream.

1

I want to access the stroke education modules for my hospital or institution

My hospital IS currently a HealthStream customer

I would like access to the Genentech stroke education modules through HealthStream. ▶ Log into your HealthStream site. Access the course catalog and search "Genentech stroke modules." ▶ HealthStream administrators may assign the courses to end users, or end users may electively enroll in the courses.

My hospital IS NOT a HealthStream customer, OR I'm not sure if my hospital is a HealthStream customer

I would like to have access to the Genentech stroke education modules through my hospital's Learning Management System (LMS). ▶ Go to www.healthstream.com/genentech. Complete and submit all of the required information fields. ▶ A HealthStream representative will contact you shortly thereafter to guide you through the content integration process.

I would like to access the Genentech stroke education modules through a free, modified version of the HealthStream platform. ▶ Go to www.healthstream.com/genentech. Complete and submit all of the required information fields. ▶ A HealthStream representative will contact you shortly thereafter with your unique URL to access the Genentech stroke education modules for your institution.

I want to access the stroke education modules for myself

I AM a HealthStream customer

▶ Log into your HealthStream site. Access the course catalog and search "Genentech stroke modules."

I AM NOT a HealthStream customer

▶ Go to www.healthstream.com/hlc/genentech. Complete the information required under the self-registration link. Access is granted instantaneously.

If you are having difficulty accessing the courses, please contact HealthStream customer service at 1-800-521-0574 or customer.service@healthstream.com.
